

Announcement of Intention of
The SUPPORT Arts and Crafts International Centre of Thailand (Public Organization)
On
Administration with Good Faith, Morality and Transparency

In accordance with the Order of the National Council for Peace and the Order No. 69/2557, as of 18 June 2014, concerning the National Anti-Corruption Strategy (Phrase 3/2017-2021), the National Anti-Corruption and Suppression Plan, and the Anti-Corruption and Suppression Action Plan of the Ministry of Commerce (2017-2021), The SUPPORT Arts and Crafts International Centre of Thailand (Public Organization) has committed to operate with integrity, transparency, and morality as follows:

1. Transparency: To reinforce transparency, SACICT shall provide and disclose information on procurements and operations with clarity and accuracy for all parties concerned to monitor our operations and/or take part in finding the solutions together (if requested).
2. Accountability: SACICT shall operate with ethics and the good governance in compliance with the laws, rules, regulations, and norms and shall be responsible for all mistakes and damages occurred.
3. Security from the Operational Corruption: SACICT is determined to be corruption-free, in the aspects of the fraudulent and corruption policy, without any conflict of interests and bribery.
4. Organizational Ethics and Integrity: To prevent conflict of interests and corruptions, SACICT shall promote and support the integrity culture and organizational ethics.
5. Organizational Moral Values: To maximize public benefits and with the public interest in mind, SACICT shall promote and support the moral values within all departments of the organization such as the Human Resources Management, the Budget Management, and the Job Assignment, etc.

6. Organizational Communication: To create mutual awarenesses and understandings at all levels, SACICT shall apply the modern medias and technologies with our internal communications for better improvement and information access.

Announced on 15 June 2018

A. Pichalai

(Mrs. Amparwan Pichalai)
SACICT Chief Executive Officer